Going places

I think of you more than I'd like to
I need more mental space these days
But you fill it all up
You fill it all up

I'm scared of bumping into you
Cause I don't wanna have small talk
Small talk is what acquaintances do
And we slept together

When I get told I'm going places
There's something I think that I don't say
I really wanted to take you with me
To every new place that I'm at
I have no way of finding out
If I cross your mind
There isn't a day you don't cross mine
I hope you're fine

I wanna know how it makes you feel
To listen to songs that remind you
Of people that you're no longer in touch with There's people that I'm no longer in touch with
And we slept together

When I get told I'm going places
There's something I think that I don't say
I really wanted to take you with me
To every new place that I'm at
I have no way of finding out
If I cross your mind
There isn't a day you don't cross mine

Trust

It’s been a month since the incident
Since you held me in your arms
In my world it was an incident
I wanna know what it was for you

Maybe it was a normal conversation
No more no more
Wish it had been just a conversation
Can’t take this silence anymore

Trust
Can I trust you?
Can we speak
So I can feel that I trust you

Some of the things you said
Though I’ve tried
They’re stuck in my head
Believe me I’ve tried to place
Less importance on
The things you said
But I can’t

How much longer is it gonna take?
Til you hold me in your arms
I want to get good sleep again
I really hope you’re sleeping well too !

Don’t think it was a normal conversation
No more no more
Can’t take this silence anymore

Trust
Can I trust you?
Can we speak
So I can feel that I trust you

Some of the things you said
Though I’ve tried
Believe me I’ve tried to place
Less importance on
The things you said
But I can’t

Hit your face

Love
Appreciate it that you're letting me know
You got promoted at your job
You got the raise that you deserved

But love
Have you thought maybe I'm not ready to know
That you're doing more than well
And when you're not she's there to help

You know I'd never do it
But I'd really like to hit your face
For every euro that you've earnt
From the flat that's in your name

You know I'd never do it
But I'd really like to hit your face
For every kiss you've given her
While I was lonely and scared of men

Love
Appreciate how much you've insisted on Knowing how I'm holding up
It's so uncomfortable you ask

Cause love
It don't feel good to hide my authentic thoughts
But I can't tell you that I use
My daydream time to wish we'd never met

You know I'd never do it
But I'd really like to hit your face
For every euro that you've earnt
From the flat that's in your name

You know I'd never do it
But I'd really like to hit your face
For every kiss you've given her
While I was lonely and scared of men

I know that I broke up
But it wasn't cause you were a dick
In fact you were the best so far

I know that I broke up
Though you're the only man
Who's earned my trust
In the past five years but

Love
Appreciate it that you're letting me know
You got the raise that you deserved

What my body wants

What kind of movie
What kind of simulation
Have you dragged me in?
Or have I dragged you into this?

Every time I'm near you
Feels like the universe is talking
Am I blocking your way?
Or is this where I should stay?

I want to – translate what the universe says
Translate what my body wants
For us – so we can understand
Everything that the universe says
Everything that my body wants
Everything that the universe says
Everything that my body wants

What kind of feeling
What kind of revelation
Am I waiting for?
When your body covers mine

I don't doubt I like you
But there's a force that yells
That I am playing a role
In somebody else's life

Translate what the universe says
Translate what my body wants
For us – so we can understand
Everything that the universe says
Everything that my body wants
Everything that the universe says
Everything that my body wants

Might be out there
Might exist
It might find me
I'll be here
I'll be treasuring
This image I have of you
You tell me about the music
You've been making with your friends
Your soul gets filled with true love
That you let me taste

I want to – translate what the universe says
Translate what my body wants
For us – so we can understand
Everything that the universe says
Everything that my body wants
Everything that the universe says
Everything that my body wants

On stage

You should see her when she’s on stage
No one could ever say
She’s trying to pretend

It’s crystal clear that she’s having fun
She enjoys herself
And that’s all I’ve been aiming for
Since I play guitar

I wonder what she thinks
About herself
Does she know she’s got the sound
She’s got a voice that no human Could get bored of

I wonder what she thinks
About herself
Is she easy on her brain
When she’s on stage
When she’s on stage

Overthink

I'm making an effort
To understand what I feel
But there's no real effort to make

I guess I did
I said I loved you last night
Are you okay with it?

I know that I still don't know you but
I'm getting there
I know that I still don't know you but

This is the oldest I've been
And the youngest I will ever be
You're in the room and I don't overthink
You make it easy being human

This is the oldest I've been
And the youngest I will ever be
Being alive is such a simple thing
When you make me feel seen

I've always lived here
But now there's something that's changed
I don't feel out of place

You get my attention
And you don't need to do anything
You're around and that's it

I know that I still don't know you but
You're a safe space
I know that I still don't know you but

This is the oldest I've been
And the youngest I will ever be
You're in the room and I don't overthink
You make it easy being human

This is the oldest I've been
And the youngest I will ever be
Being alive is such a simple thing

Watery eyes

I can’t believe you let me leave you
I can’t believe you let me leave you
With watery eyes

It’s a bit too dark
I can’t catch your eye
Amidst the big crowd of people

I know I’ll be upset
If I don’t get to see you
But I can’t force you to reply

My question is where are you?
My wish is come and hug me

I can’t believe you let me leave you
I can’t believe you let me leave you
With watery eyes

I can’t believe you let me leave
I can’t believe you let me

In the end you find me
You say you want some water
I want some too
We find a fountain

You’re eating your noodles
Though you said you’re not hungry
You spill soy sauce on my clothes

Your statement is I like you
But I can’t bear letting this happen

I can’t believe you let me leave you
I can’t believe you let me leave you
With watery eyes

I can’t believe you let me leave
I can’t believe you let me

Acting wisely

As I walk I catch myself
Catching feelings bout what we had
My emotions got so attached
Though I knew I was just passing by
For a while

It was magical
I knew you'd always been in my life
It was magical
I'd never had two eyes looking
At me like that
How they shined

We both know
What we had
Won't happen twice

But we both
Want what's best
We're acting wisely

And I can't be with someone
Who's defensive if I'm sad
No I can't be with someone
Who gets lost if things get hard
Cause things get hard

I miss to see you play guitar
I miss the windows of your flat
We shared the sky
You showed me I can be in love
I miss the person that I was
By your side

It was magical
We hadn't met but you'd been in my life
All along
It's so magical
The different ways we can remember
Someone over time

We both know
What we had
Won't happen twice

But we both
Want what's best
We're acting wisely

And I can't be with someone
Who's defensive if I'm sad
Who gets lost if things get hard
Cause things get hard

Good intention

I recently discovered that I love you
And I don't think I was prepared for that
You proved life can still get surprising
You’re the sweet kind of surprise

I recently discovered that I love you
When you’re talking in your sleep at night
I can’t believe I slept again
On a bed that isn’t mine

How much good intention is enough?
For my chest to figure what it wants
Out

I recently discovered that I love you
When you talk about your mum and dad
The safety that you have been given
Surrounds us when we’re holding hands

I recently discovered that I love you
Because my whole body loosens up
When it listens to your breath
It’s the sign I feel secure

How much good intention is enough?
For my chest to finally make it work
I don’t think intentions are enough
I can’t be your person but I love you

I don’t think that you need to be told
That you’ve always been more than enough
One more thing you don’t need to be told
But I need to repeat how much I love you

Relate

I can't imagine being sad here
How much emotion
Can these concrete walls hold?

I'm used to enjoying feeling lonely
But there's no progress if I stay on my own

You share your thoughts about the industry
And I tell you

I relate
It's soothing when you say you feel the same
It gets me moving

Relate
It's soothing just to know you felt the same
It gets me moving

Relate

There's so much joy in sitting here watching you
As we have breakfast together

We're brokenhearted so I made us some juice
It's magic potion to feel better

I share my thoughts about the industry
And you tell me

You relate
It's soothing when you say you feel the same
It gets me moving

Relate
It's soothing just to know you felt the same
It gets me moving

I relate
I relate
I relate
I relate

The rush

There's this rush I'm in
It moves too fast for me
We became this rush
Without even noticing

I'm part of the rush
I can't control it
We create this rush
All I can be is movement

If you leave your phone
If you leave your phone
We can be alone
We can be alone

And if you leave your phone
Time can be yours

Now I'm listening to Secret Place
I'm dreaming of the different ways
I could escape

Now I'm listening to Secret Place
I'm dreaming of the different ways
I could escape

There's this rush I'm in
It moves too fast for me
I became this rush
Without even noticing

And if you leave your phone
If you leave your phone
We can be alone
We can be alone

And if you leave your phone
Time can be yours

If you leave your phone
If you leave your phone
We can be alone
We can be alone

And if you leave your phone
Time can be yours

Of being useful
Of being used
Of being productive
Of being confused

There's this rush I'm in
It moves too fast for me
I became this rush
Without even noticing

Lungs

It was august
I was bleeding
And you were
With somebody else

But at times
All I could think of
Was the image of your bed

And you know that I don't need you
But I like to feel your breath
When you're laying right behind me

I feel my lungs expanding
To the beat of your heart
All of what is around me
Wants to be yours

I know I've felt this way before
If I could I wouldn't ask for more
Cause I feel my lungs expanding
To the beat of your heart
When I'm with

It was august
And my feelings
Had been touched
By someone else

But the thought of you existing
Made the worries go away
And you know that I don't need you
But I like to feel your hands
When you put your arms around me

I feel my lungs expanding
To the beat of your heart
All of what is around me
Wants to be yours

I know I've felt this way before
If I could I wouldn't ask for more
Cause I feel my lungs expanding
To the beat of your heart
When I'm with you

Alive at the same time

I see your face in my mind
It looks blurry
Why won't you come back

I daydream of you
When I'm under ground
And I wonder
Would you like to go out

I wish you could see you
Through my eyes
You'd see that you look always nice

I know that you're thirty
And I know that I'm twenty
But the important thing is we're
Alive at the same time

I know that you're thirty
And I know that I'm twenty
But we're not so far apart
We're not so far apart
We're not so far apart
We're not so far apart
We're not so far apart
We're not so

Your face is here in my mind
It looks blurry but please
Don't come back

And you lost your spot
In my daily thoughts
And I'm not a teenager anymore

I wish you could feel you
Through my mind
I'd say you've fallen from the sky

I know that you're thirty
And I know that I'm twenty
But the important thing is we're
Alive at the same time

I know that you're thirty
And I know that I'm twenty
But we're not so far apart
We're not so far apart

I know that you're thirty
And I know that I'm twenty
But the important thing is we're
Alive at the same time

I know that you're thirty
And I know that I'm twenty
But we're not so far apart
We're not so far apart
We're not so far apart
We're not so far apart
We're not so far apart
We're not so far apart
We're not so far apart
We're not so far apart
We're not so far apart
We're not so far apart
We're not so far apart

Party

I'm trapped in this grief
I don't expect it to go
And I'm sorry
But I can't let you in
Words are important
But love is the most
Important thing to me

I knew I could not be
Forever with you
I knew that we wanted
Different things
Now I just want you to Listen to this song
And breathe
And breathe

Now I wish that I could grab
A beer and enjoy the party
But that's not me
That's who I'd like to be

I just wish that I could grab
A beer and get drunk
But that's not me
That's who I'd like to be

I'm trapped in this grief
I don't expect it to go
And I'm sorry
But I can't let you in
Words are important
But love is the most
Important thing to me

Now I wish that I could grab
A beer and enjoy the party
But that's not me
That's who I'd like to be

I just wish that I could grab
A beer and get drunk
But that's not me
That's who I'd like to be

I just wish that I could grab
A beer and go and party
But that's not me
That's who I'd like to be

I'm trapped in this grief
I don't expect it to go
Thanks to you I learnt a lot from me

Balance

I see you in my dreams
You show an attitude that I like
You're here with me
You don't want to leave

I hear you in my dreams
You sing a song that we both like
Soap on my feet
You're in the shower with me

Now I'm wet and heavy
I think that you're the one I like
But it's so scary
To think that this will expire

You're with somebody else
While I'm fighting to keep my
Balance

Tears cover my face
While you're having a beer
With somebody else
With somebody else

I see you in my dreams
You say you want to take care of me
And you really do
Your thoughts are with me

I heard you in my dreams
And I could see how your lips moved
You said you've missed
To share the same ceiling

Now I'm wet and heavy
I think that you're the one I like
But it's so scary
To think that this will expire

You're with somebody else
While I'm fighting to keep my
Balance

Tears cover my face
With somebody else
With somebody else

I'm happy about it
I'm crying but I'm happy about it
I'm under ground and I'm crying
But I'm happy about it

I see you in my dreams
You show an attitude that I like
You're here with me

Brave

When will I see you again
Will I have found the way
To forgive myself

When will I hold your hands
Observe the trees
And breathe by your side

Cause when I hate myself
You make me feel like
It’s all worth it again
And if we hate ourselves
We’ll be together to go
Throughout all the mess
If we hate ourselves

When will I see you smile
The greatest gift
I could ask for in a lifetime

When will I touch your voice
Throughout the screen
I start to feel like I’m dying

Cause when I hate myself
You make me feel like
It’s all worth it again
And if we hate ourselves
If we hate ourselves we’ll be brave

We’ll be brave

Uncertainty

I get worried so easily lately
I can't seem to stop my thoughts
And I can't help myself
I think that maybe
You and I would get along

But we're so different
You like it fast I like it slow
But it's so easy and
You make me want
To write new songs

And every word I say
Could be the last one
And every breath I take
Reminds me I'm not sure
It's hard to tell when will be
The last time
If you ask me something
Maybe I don't know

I get worried so easily lately
I can't seem to stop my thoughts
But everything you say
Is peace and quiet
Whatever happens won't go wrong

And every word I say
Could be the last one
Reminds me I'm not sure
It's hard to tell when will be
The last time
If you ask me something
Maybe I don't know

Blood

A kitchen and two glasses
And an endless amount of time
It fell down I don't know
What happened
But it fell right on my hand

Do you know what time it is?
I haven't checked the watch tonight
It's strange but I know
You're not leaving
You're not leaving me behind

And suddenly the blood
Starts flowing out of me
And I know that I'm just supposed
To be right here

Tell your dad
That I'm sorry I'm early
But there's never a right time
There was never a right time

There's blood (there's blood)
There's blood on my hands
(there's blood)
There's blood (there's blood)
There's blood in my brain
(there's blood)
There's blood
Thank god that there's blood

I'm sorry that I drank too much
I didn't mean to go that far
It's late and the concert is starting
But my stomach holds me back

And now I'm here in your house
And I have blood on my hands
What is it that makes me so clumsy
I didn't mean to break that glass
I didn't mean to break that glass

And suddenly the blood
Starts flowing out of me
And I know that I'm not supposed
To be anything

Tell your dad
That I'm sorry I'm early
But there's never a right time
There was never a right time
Tell your dad
That things never happen
When I expect them to
The way I expect them to
There's blood (there's blood)
There's blood on my hands (there's blood)
There's blood (there's blood)
There's blood in my brain (there's blood)
There's blood
Thank god that there's blood
There's blood (there's blood)
There's blood on my hands (there's blood)
There's blood (there's blood)
There's blood in my brain (there's blood)
There's blood
Thank god that there's blood
Blood

I don’t want to move on

You say you’re sad, you’re just tired
I can relate I’m tired too
It’s the way the world spins around
It’s hard to keep your feet
On the ground

Now you wrote me a letter
Saying you’re sorry well thanks
But after eight months the world’s
A different place
After eight months my mind’s
A different place

This is when
I know I have to move on
But I can’t

This is when
I know I have to move on
But I don’t want to
I just don’t want to

It will be a weird summer
Maybe you will see my face
I will capture every move
And every sound
But having a phone is not the same
As being around

This is when
I know I have to move on
But I can’t

This is when
I know I have to move on
But I don’t want to
I just don’t want to

This is when
I know I have to move on
But I can’t

This is when
I know I have to move on
But I don’t want to

This is when
I know I have to move on
But I can’t

This is when
I know I have to move on
But I don’t want to
I just don’t want to

Kind

Hello I'm waking up
But I can't get out of bed
I wonder what's going wrong
Is it something in my head

Do you see all those dark clouds
When will they go away
I'm tired of fighting
Being this way is okay

Do you ever feel like
You're wasting your light?
Do you ever feel
Like there's no way
To talk to yourself
In a way that is kind?
Kind to your mind

I'm running out of air
I'm scared of my projections
The future isn't here
The only thing that matters
Is you're
Kind to your mind
Kind to your mind

Hello it never stops
There's movement everywhere
The waves are close and I'm close
But I won't lose my head

I'm counting all my heartbeats
One day they'll go away
I'm tired of fighting
Being this way is okay

Do you ever feel like
You're wasting your light?
Do you ever feel
Like there's no way
To talk to yourself
In a way that is kind?
Kind to your mind

I'm running out of air
I'm scared of my projections
The future isn't here
The only thing that matters
Is you're
Kind to your mind
Kind to your mind

Brains (2020)

1. Fun 2:54
2. Generation of the young flesh 2:32

B

3. Brains 2:36
4. Thanksgiving song 3:54

Fun

I've been trying to look
Behind those blue eyes
But I haven't found
What you told me

And everytime that we fucK
I feel it's alright
I know that I came here
To have fun

But every once in a while
When you hold my hand
I feel there's a chance to pretend

To make as if we have grown
To rule our own world
To make as if we learnt how to love

But I understand
That things don't always go
The way we plan

But I understand
That is hard to always be
Honest with yourself

So the plane took off
And the phone never rang
And your mouth
Has forgotten my brain

And here comes the spring
And my mess is still the same
I'll think of your skin when I'm away

But I understand
That things don't always go
The way we plan

But I understand
Honest with yourself

I've been trying to look
Behind those blue eyes
But I haven't found
What you told me

And everytime that we fuck
I feel it's alright
I know that I came here
To have fun

Generation of the young flesh

We are the generation of the young flesh
We are the generation of the young flesh
We like to have sex on friday night
And forget it by monday

We are the generation of the young flesh
We are the generation of the young flesh
We like to feel the heat of some foreign hands
And drink coffee in the mornings

Who will I become
Someone save this song
Who will I become
Pleeeeeeeeeeeeeeease

We are the generation of the young flesh
We are the generation of the young flesh
We like to have adventures in faraway lands
And take pictures and show it

Who will I become
Who will I become
Pleeeeeeeeeeeeeeease

We are the generation of the young flesh
We are the generation of the young flesh
We like to have sex on friday night
And forget it by monday

Brains

Give me a second
I need it to breathe
Somehow last night
I couldn’t fall asleep

I was looking for you
Behind the bushes in my room

Brains are complicated but it is not our fault
And I feel like I love you but I don’t say it enough

Last night I heard you
Crying in bed
I sneaked through the blankets
I want to keep you save

And the sharks won’t catch us this time
And the rain will pour from my eyes

Brains are complicated but it is not our fault
And I feel like I love you but I don’t say it enough

Thanksgiving song

When I'm 62
And I'm grey and blue
Will you still love me
Like you do

Undress my soul
Untighten my knots
And tell me about the times
When we were young

You've always been there
You've always believed in me
You've always trusted my words
You always said I'm the most
Beautiful thing you've ever seen

Take me walking to the park
No one cares about who we are
But we can show the world
That we can work it out

Brick by brick and hand in hand
I will hate you till the end
For being such a creature
Such a fantastic man

And your loving is her prayer

We come and we go
And you already know
That I feel thankful for all the times
You've swept my mess

When the day is done
I'll close my eyes
And think of all the love that I still have
It's yours so take it

You've always been there
You've always trusted my words
You always said I'm the most
Beautiful thing you've ever seen

Take me walking to the park
No one cares about who we are
But we can show the world
That we can work it out

Brick by brick and hand in hand
For being such a creature
Such a fantastic man

And your loving is her prayer
